

People will let you down, hurt you, embarrass you and belittle you. They will tear you down, beat you up and destroy you. They will cut your wings up in the sole purpose of preventing you to fly higher than them. It doesn't matter how good you are, or how poorly you act, doesn't matter how successful you are or how hard you fail, because people will always be rooting against you. The only thing that matters is the way you choose to react to all of that, you can either ignore that criticism or aim for the stars, or you can dig up your own hole by listening to them.
