

TINA Maamari SE Speech:

Dear sisters, parents, teachers, and friends,

"They say you never know the value of something until it becomes a memory". Standing here in front of you all today, i can't express how much we relate to this quote on our last day here. For the past fifteen years, we've shared so many laughs and tears together, we have shared a lot of moments, and most importantly, we've grown together to become the one big family that we are today. We've all struggled to make it through this tough year, but i can gladly say that we did it, and we became stronger than ever.

We would like to take a moment, to thank sister Georgette, for always providing with what's best for us, and for putting our needs above everything. We'd also like to thank our teachers, because they helped us get to where we are today. They weren't only our teachers, but our cheerleaders, our therapists, and our chosen family. Lastly, we are so thankful for our parents and for all the sacrifices that they made for us, as well as, for being the reason we keep pushing ourselves forward for the better.

This road has come to an end, and a whole new world is waiting for us. To my friends, I'm so proud of us, and i wish us all the success and happiness, and may we meet again!
